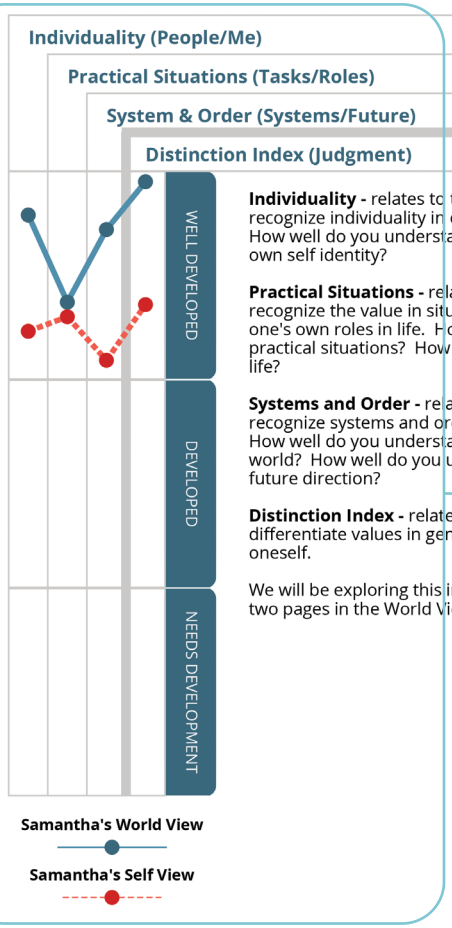
Summary of Acuman Capacity Page

Summary of Acumen Capacity

The Dimensions section measures Samantha's ability to understand each of the dimensions individually as well as the ability to differentiate the value elements in situations.



Individuality - relates to the development of your ability to recognize individuality in others and individuality within yourself. How well do you understand others? How well developed is your own self identity?

Practical Situations - relates to the development of your ability to recognize the value in situations in the outside world and within one's own roles in life. How well do you understand all aspects of practical situations? How well do you understand your roles in life?

Systems and Order - relates to the development of your ability to recognize systems and order in the world and within yourself. How well do you understand structure and organization in the world? How well do you understand your self-organization and future direction?

Distinction Index - relates to your development of the ability to differentiate values in general in the world as well as within oneself.

We will be exploring this information in more detail over the next two pages in the World View and Self View sections.

Acumen measures your thinking patterns, what you value, and your capacity to make decisions.

The graph shows how you see the world around you (external) and within you (internal). This view can strongly influence your growth in both life and work.

Self View

This is how Samantha sees herself. This view measures her clarity and understanding of herself, her roles in life and her direction for the future. The internal dimensions are a reflection of her from both personal and professional viewpoints. The statements below are based on the 3 dimensions found on the Self View side of the dimensional balance page. The statements will be listed in scoring order from highest to lowest.

- Samantha will focus on the process of role changes when necessary to assure a smoother transition.
- Samantha is a person who emphasizes her personal and professional roles.
- Samantha has a good grasp of her life roles.
- Samantha tends to rely on herself in the face of adversity.
- Samantha may call upon her inner strength when needed to get through a situation.
- Samantha could benefit from developing a deeper understanding and appreciation of herself.
- Samantha tends to follow a set of organizing principles for her life.
- Samantha is open to future possibilities and opportunities, and her flexibility about her long-term future should help her to take advantage of opportunities.
- Samantha focuses on the directional aspects of life, where she is going and who she will become.

Your Self View explains how you understand yourself, your roles in life, and your vision for the future, personally and professionally.

The clearer your self-view, the better equipped you are to address internal challenges.

The statements are ranked by how clearly you see yourself, your life roles, and your future. These rankings can change with life events and are useful for spotting coaching opportunities.

World View

This is how Samantha sees the world around her. This view measures her clarity and understanding of people, tasks and systems. It could also be looked at in terms of feeling, doing and thinking from an external standpoint. The statements below are based primarily on the 3 dimensions found on the World View side of the dimensional balance page. The statements will be listed in scoring order from highest to lowest.

- Samantha values people as individuals, rather than just on their performance, even when she is in a management position.
- Samantha understands people well and enjoys a feeling of mutual respect for others.
- Samantha enjoys forming and maintaining close affiliations with others.
- Samantha sees order and structure as necessary requirements for getting things done.
- Samantha performs best in an atmosphere that has a clear structure and a well-defined chain of command.
- Samantha has good thinking and planning abilities.
- Samantha sees the practical perspective clearly and will ignore interruptions to stay focused.
- Samantha performs best in an atmosphere that is practical, with the end-point of each project or task clearly defined.
- Samantha focuses on solutions to problems to achieve goals.

The World View reflects how you perceive and assign value to the external world—specifically people, tasks, and systems.

The order of the statements shows which parts of the outside world you value most and how clearly you understand them.

A Look at TTI's ACI Assessment:
Summary of Capacity for Problem Solving Page

This Problem and Decisions Index measures your ability to handle problems in the world (blue) and within yourself (coral).

The Reaction Index shows how well you handle your reactions to different situations, both outside and inside.

The blue pattern represents your capacity to deal with people, tasks, and systems.

The coral pattern reflects the capacity based on yourself, your roles, and your future.

Business Performance Summary

The Business Performance Summary will identify Samantha's ability to solve problems and concentrate during challenging times and ability to make balanced decisions.
